- if your address or phone number charges (triple) and all post all post and all post and all post and all post all post and all post all po
- dates when you may not be able to go to fit. Proceedings of the contact your Witness Care Officer to update this information are soon as it changes. It is needed when the trial date is set.

Will the suspect (the defendant) or the defence lawyer be given my address?

No, your address is recorded on the reverse of your witness attement and the defendant or their solicitor only receives a copy of the cont. Also, witnesses are not usually asked to give their address out oud it court. The defendant or their solicitor is normally told the names cany witnesses.

What will happen to my statement?

If a suspect is charged over this incident, your statement and all the other evidence will be passed to the Crown Prosecution Service (CPS). CPS is responsible for prosecuting people who have been charged with a criminal offence in England and Wales. Although they work closely together, the police and CPS are separate organisations.

Who will read my statement?

Everyone involved with the case will read your statement (e.g. the police, CPS, defence and the magistrate or judge).

What if someone tries to intimidate me?

It is a criminal offence to intimidate (frighten) a witness or anyone else helping the police in an investigation. If you are harassed or threatened in any way before, during or after the trial, you should tell the police immediately by calling Essex Police on 0300 333 4444.

Will I be told what is happening in the case?

You should be kept informed of progress in the case at regular intervals by the officer during the investigation. This role will be fulfilled by a witness care officer should your case go to court. You can contact the police at any time if you have questions or concerns. You will be contacted if you are needed to go to court (but it may be some time after you gave your statement, as cases take prepare

Victors of crime should be told

- if a succession is charged
- alt lit bailed a little ense c
- If the doc not product ar peas

Witnesses who are not victims of the crime may not be contacted again if:
• the suspect admits the offence and is cautioned or pleads guilty at court

- there is not enough evidence to prosecute the suspect
- no suspect is identified

Will I have to go to court?

You will only have to go to court if the defendant either:

- denies the charge and pleads 'not guilty'
- pleads guilty but denies an important part of the offence which might affect the type of sentence they receive.
 If you are asked to go to court, the prosecution and defence lawyers will ask you questions about your evidence. You will to read your statement to refresh your memory first. If the liven a statement and are then asked to go to court live evidence, you must do so. You will be sent:
- ter telling you when and where to go
- an lanatory leaflet.
