Dear Mr. Cape

Freedom of Information Act 2000 - 3866866

Thank you for your request for information, which we received on 7 August 2018 and processed under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

Your request was:

We have been waiting since the general election of 2015 for the promised right to buy of our association house. The latest information released stated that there would be a midland wide pilot in August. We are now part way through the month with no further details. When is the pilot going to start?

The launch date was 16 August 2018. The official announcement can be found at:
