Dear Mr Butler-Henderson

Thank you for your email of 27 November 2020 requesting the following information:

I have recently purchased a Land Rover 109 and believe it to have been previously in active service with the army.

Please would you provide me with its in-service history.

Its MOD registration number was 65 FM 85 and its chassis number is 91105213B.

Your request has been handled in accordance with the Freedom of Information (FOI) Act 2000.

A search has been undertaken of Ministry of Defence (MOD) records. However, no information is held about your vehicle.

Under Section 16 (Advice and Assistance) of the FOI Act, I can advise you that it is possible that the Royal Logistic Corps Museum may be able to assist your research. The contact details for the museum are below, but you should know that there may be a charge for using this service:

If you have any queries regarding the content of this letter, please contact this office in the first instance. If you wish to complain about the handling of your request, or the content of this response, you can request an independent internal review by contacting the Information Rights Compliance team, Ground Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail CIO-FOI-IR@mod.gov.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review should be made within 40 working days of the date of this response.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may raise your complaint directly to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not normally investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at: Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website at <https://ico.org.uk/>.

Yours sincerely
