Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) 2000

Request For Information-Acknowledgement

Reference: FOI 20181027

Dear Mr Barnard,

Thank you for your request for information relating to the model and data underpinning the Thames Tideway decision.

Your request was received on 29/10/2018 and is being dealt with under the terms and conditions of the FOIA 2000, as the information requested does not fall under the definitions of the EIRs which can be found at the following link:

<http://www.legislation.gov.uk/ukxi/2004/3391/contents/made>

You will receive the information requested within 20 working days unless a legal exemption prevents us from disclosing the information to you. If we do not hold the information we will advise you and where possible will direct you to the location of where you can access the relevant information.

It is our preferred method to respond to you by email unless you specifically advise us otherwise.

Once a FOI/EIR request is answered, it is considered to be in the public domain. To promote transparency, Ofwat may publish the response and any material released on our website in the FOI disclosure section. Any personal information in the letter will be removed before publishing. This document will be held in accordance with Ofwat's retention and disposal schedule which can be found in our Publication Scheme at the following link <https://www.ofwat.gov.uk/publication/retention-disposals-policy/>. If you have any concerns how Ofwat processes your personal data please contact the Data Protection Officer at FOI@ofwat.gsi.gov.uk. To view Ofwat's full privacy policy please go to <https://www.ofwat.gov.uk/publication/privacy-policy/>

If you have any queries or concerns with regard to the content of this email please contact me, quoting the reference number FOI 20181027
