Dear Mr Gregory

Request for Information – RFI20190441

Thank you for your request to the BBC of 6th March 2019 under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ('the Act') seeking the following information:

"Please furnish me with a copy of the Monthly Performance Pack for each month since Feb 2017"

Please note that "TV Licensing" is a trade mark used by companies contracted by the BBC to administer the collection of television licence fees and enforcement of the television licensing system. The majority of the administration of TV Licensing is contracted to Capita Business Services Ltd ('Capita'). Over-the-counter services are provided by PayPoint plc ('PayPoint') in the UK, and by the Post Office in the Isle of Man and Channel Islands. Target Group ('Target') is the supplier for the Simple Payment Plan trial. Marketing and printing services are contracted to Proximity London Ltd. Media services are contracted to Media Planning Limited trading as Havas Media UK. The BBC is a public authority in respect of its television licensing functions and retains overall responsibility.

In my initial response to you of 4th April, I confirmed that the BBC holds information of the type described in your request. However I explained that we considered that the exemptions in section 31 (law enforcement) and section 43 (commercial prejudice) were engaged in relation to multiple sections of the information you have requested and extended the deadline of the response, as permitted by the Act, to consider the public interest in disclosing versus withholding the information.

I am providing you with copies of the Service Review Packs for the 2016/17 and 2017/18 financial years, incorporating the data from the relevant monthly reports (including the month you have specified).

Having assessed the information and identified exempt information, I can confirm that I am withholding some information within these reports under section 31(1)(a), (b), (d) and (g) and 2(a) of the Act which relates to law enforcement; i.e. that disclosure would, or would be likely to, prejudice the prevention or detection of crime, the collection of the licence fee and the BBC's ability to discharge its public functions in respect of such matters. This is because it would provide information of use to those seeking to evade and/or assist others in evading paying the licence fee.

I am satisfied in terms of section 2(2) of the Act that in all the circumstances of the case, the public interest in maintaining the exemption outweighs the public interest in disclosing the information. I have considered the public interest test in the section on 'why information has been withheld' below.

Why information has been withheld

I am required under section 2(2) of the Act to assess whether the public interest in maintaining the exemptions outweighs the public interest in disclosing the information. At the outset, we would like to note that it is likely to be only in the most exceptional circumstances that it will be appropriate to prejudice the discharge of a legal duty.

The BBC accepts that there is always a public interest in transparency, accountability and public understanding in respect of TV Licensing's operations. In this particular case the following factors are in favour of disclosure:

1. ensuring that the licensing authority is exercising its functions appropriately and proportionately;
2. that public funds are being appropriately applied, and specifically that:
  - a. the TV Licensing system is being efficiently run; and
  - b. value for money is being obtained.

However, I consider that the above public interest factors in favour of disclosure are adequately addressed by the following:

1. The substantial amount of information which the BBC publishes about TV Licensing's operations in its Annual Report and Accounts; on TV Licensing's website (www.tvlicensing.co.uk); in TV Licensing's Annual Review publications (www.tvlicensing.co.uk/about/our-performance-AB6); and in the National Audit Office's annual Licence Fee Settlement Statement released at the end of each financial year.
2. The BBC Board is specifically tasked under Article 20(7) of the BBC Charter with ensuring that the arrangements for the collection of the Licence Fee are efficient, appropriate and proportionate.
3. TV Licensing's functions are subject to external review through reports of the Comptroller and Auditor General to the House of Commons and directions given by the Treasury.

4. The BBC is required to satisfy the NAO as to the value for money of the collection and enforcement arrangements and is accountable for the economy, efficiency and effectiveness of such arrangements. NAO's most recent audit is published at www.nao.org.uk.
5. The BBC has reduced the cost of collection from 6.2% of the total licence fee collected in 1991/2, when it took over this responsibility from the Home Office, to below 3% for the financial year 2017/18. This demonstrates that the TV Licensing system is being efficiently run.

In addition, the following factors are in favour of withholding the information:

1. The BBC has a duty to enforce the television licensing system and it is essential that opportunities are not provided to potential or actual evaders to escape detection or prosecution. There is a strong public interest in ensuring that information which prejudices law enforcement is not disclosed.
2. There is a strong public interest in the BBC being able to collect all the licence fee money to which it is entitled to enable the BBC to provide the public with services that encompass its public mission to inform, educate and entertain.
3. Part of keeping evasion to a minimum is maintaining uncertainty as to TV Licensing's enforcement practices. This uncertainty contributes to the deterrent effect which is an important part of TV Licensing's enforcement strategy<sup>1</sup>.
4. There is a strong public interest in ensuring the voluntary compliance with the licence fee regime. Without an effective deterrent to licence fee evasion, evasion would invariably increase. This would be to the detriment of the honest majority of people who are properly licensed, and who should not have to pay any more than is strictly necessary to ensure the compliance of those who deliberately evade paying the licence fee.
5. An increase in the rate of licence fee evasion would lead to an increase in enforcement costs and may lead to more prosecutions. There is a strong public interest in ensuring that the BBC can keep enforcement costs to a minimum, because any increase in enforcement costs will lead to a decrease in the funds available for producing the BBC's content.

Appeal Rights

If you are not satisfied that we have complied with the Act in responding to your request, you have the right to an internal review by a BBC senior manager or legal adviser. Please contact us at the address above, explaining what you would like us to review and including your reference number. If you are not satisfied with the internal review, you can appeal to the Information
