Dear Mr Boyce

Freedom of Information Act 2000 – Request for information.

I refer to your email dated 20 March 2018 regarding your request for information held by the Insolvency Service.

You requested the following information under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) 2000:

- Please can you confirm if you have any insolvency practitioners listed for Myers Clark Business Recovery Limited incorporated on 30 May 2017.

Not to be confused with Myers Clark Limited that still contains the details of two resigned directors still listed on the Insolvency Practitioners directory (names withheld).

I can confirm that the information requested is held by the Insolvency Service and that the information you have requested is exempt information under section 21 of the FOIA and is therefore refused.

Section 21(1) of the FOIA provides that information which is reasonably accessible to the applicant otherwise than under section 1 is exempt information.

Section 21(2) For the purposes of subsection (1) –

- (a) information may be reasonably accessible to the applicant even though it is accessible only on payment, and
- (b) information is to be taken to be reasonably accessible to the applicant if it is information which the public authority or any other person is obliged by or under any enactment to communicate (otherwise than by making the information available for inspection) to members of the public on request, whether free of charge or on payment.

Section 21 provides an absolute exemption. This means that if the requested information is held by the public authority, and it is reasonably accessible to the applicant by other means, it is not subject to the public interest test.

The information that you have requested is available from the insolvency practitioner directory: <https://www.insolvencydirect.bis.gov.uk/FIP1/Home/IP/6084>

The Insolvency department of Myers Clark Limited is the Myers Clark Business Recovery Limited. If you would like further information about the company please contact them directly.

If you are dissatisfied with any final decision provided by The Insolvency Service you have the right to complain to the Information Commissioner (IC). The IC can be contacted at:
