Dear Mr Webber,

Thank you for your e-mail of 8 March 2019 requesting the following information:

"I understand that for the 2012 Olympics, LOCOG arranged for the world's 204 national anthems to be recorded. It strikes me that this is the sort of thing that you might have obtained a copy of! If so, please provide me with an electronic copy of (i) the recordings, and (ii) the sheet music.

If you do not hold this information, please can you inform me of what recordings of national anthems you do hold centrally."

I am treating your correspondence as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA).

I can confirm that the Ministry of Defence does not hold the information within the scope of your request.

If you are not satisfied with this response or you wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of your request, then you should contact me in the first instance. If informal resolution is not possible and you are still dissatisfied then you may apply for an independent internal review by contacting the Information Rights Compliance team, Ground Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail CIO-FOI-IR@mod.gov.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review must be made within 40 working days of the date on which the attempt to reach informal resolution has come to an end.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website www.ico.org.uk

Yours sincerely,

DDC Secretariat Parliamentary
