

Response to Request for Information

National Assessment and Accreditation System (social work)

I can confirm that the information requested is held by Wolverhampton Council. I have detailed below the information marked in blue that is being released to you.

1. How many qualified social workers at Wolverhampton Council have completed the social work National Assessment and Accreditation System as of 31/1/2020?
31 Social Workers
2. What percentage of the social work workforce has the DfE set for your authority to have completed accreditation and by what date?
20% - 30% by 31 March 2020
3. Has your authority provided any financial incentive to encourage social workers to volunteer for accreditation and if so how much?
£400 enhancement on meeting the post qualifying practice standards paid. This is not considered an incentive but is regarded as an acknowledgement that SW have prepared for, took the assessment and met the standards.
4. If your authority has provided a financial incentive from what budget has this been funded?
Department for Education NAAS Grant Money.

Please quote the reference number 1447025 in any future communications.
