Dear Mrs Hair,

Freedom of information request (reference: 30960)

Thank you for your email of 3 March 2014, in which you ask for a document which shows UK Border Force new-style epaulette and its corresponding rank/grade. Your request is being handled as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

I am pleased to write and supply in annex A to this letter the details of the new-style epaulette and its corresponding rank/grade.

If you are dissatisfied with this response you may request an independent internal review of our handling of your request by submitting a complaint within two months to the address below, quoting reference 30960. If you ask for an internal review, it would be helpful if you could say why you are dissatisfied with the response.

As with any internal review the Department handles, your information request will be reassessed by staff who were not involved in providing you with this response. If you remain dissatisfied after this internal review, you would have a right of complaint to the Information Commissioner as established by section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act.

Yours sincerely,

S. Khanom
