Dear Mr Harrington,

Freedom of Information Request Reference FOI-1399039

Thank you for your request dated 20 March, in which you asked the Department of Health and Social Care (DHSC):

"Dear Department of Health and Social Care,

Thank you for your reply.

My request refers to - as said specifically in the email - the NHS App. I am not asking about the COVID App.

Please proceed on this basis, and I assume the start date as the start of the correspondence, as my initial email was specific to the NHS App.

Yours faithfully,

Richard Harrington"

Your request has been handled under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA).

DHSC does not hold the information you have requested.

However, you may wish to contact NHS Digital (NHSD), which may hold information relevant to your request.

If you are not satisfied with the handling of your request, you have the right to appeal by asking for an internal review. This should be sent to freedomofinformation@dhsc.gov.uk or to the address at the top of this letter and be submitted within two months of the date of this letter.

Please remember to quote the reference number above in any future communication.

If you are not content with the outcome of your internal review, you may complain directly to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO). Generally, the ICO cannot make a decision unless you have already appealed our original response and received our internal review decision. You should raise your concerns with the ICO within three months of your last meaningful contact with us.
