Dear J Grove ,

Further to my letter of 11 January 2021, I have now completed my review of our response to your request under the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 (FOISA), as follows:

Please provide the NHS boards where the testing occurs the information provided in the Data Tables (with positive and negative test data) just details "Scotland" as the source without detailing the NHS Board where this result was sourced. Thank you.

I have concluded that the original decision should be confirmed, however you may find the following information helpful:

The information provided in the reply to your FoI is correct. The link provided in the response (https://public.tableau.com/profile/phs.covid.19#!/vizhome/COVID-19DailyDashboard\_15960160643010/Overview) - is an overview of the publicly available information relevant to your request. It has two links. This one: <https://www.opendata.nhs.scot/dataset/covid-19-in-scotland> includes the dataset you requested in your original FoI request. The specific page with the dataset is here: <https://www.opendata.nhs.scot/dataset/covid-19-in-scotland/resource/8da654cd-293b-4286-96a4-b3ece86225f0>

If you are unhappy with the outcome of this review you have the right to appeal to the Scottish Information Commissioner about our decision within 6 months of receiving this letter. Information on how to make an appeal, along with an application form, is available on the Commissioner's website at: <http://www.itspublicknowledge.info/YourRights/Unhappywiththeresponse/AppealingtoCommissioner.aspx>. You can also contact the Commissioner at:
