Dear John O'Sullivan,

Freedom of Information Request – FOI2022/00283

I am writing in response to your email received by Post Office Limited (“Post Office”) on 13 April, which I am dealing with under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

In your email you have requested the following information:

- How many POL branches are there?
- What is the breakdown by type, Mains, local, Independent, old POL contract, Outreach etc.

I can confirm that we do hold the information you have requested.

However, under Section 21 of the Act, we are not required to provide information in response to a request if it is already reasonably accessible to you. The information is available from our Annual Network Report, please see slides 9 and 17:
<https://corporate.postoffice.co.uk/media/lzkfri54/network-report-2020-21-regular-print-final-2.pdf>

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of this response, you do have a right to request an internal review. You can do this by writing to the address above stating your reasons for your internal review request:

Yours sincerely
