For the attention of: J Taylor
Our Ref: FOI 15840

Dear Sir / Madam

Following your request under the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA), where you requested information about trees that have been cut down, we can confirm that the information is already accessible on our website.

The requested information therefore is exempt under Section 21 of the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), as the information is reasonably accessible to you elsewhere in the public domain. Further details may be found on the following link
<https://isa.chiltern.gov.uk/online-applications/advancedSearchResults.do?action=firstPage>

We hope this answers your questions, but if not, you can contact us (details below) with your query quoting the FOI number at the top of this page. You can also seek an internal review of your request if you remain unhappy with the outcome. Ultimately you can complain to the Information Commissioner should you remain dissatisfied, having exhausted the authority's internal review procedures. If you would like more information about the role and work of the Information Commissioner go to the website www.ico.gov.uk

Yours faithfully

CHILTERN DISTRICT COUNCIL
