Question 4

The officer who oversaw the investigation was Detective Superintendent George Ritchie and the Reporting Officer was Detective Inspector Peter Robertson. Due to the passage of time we cannot confirm how many officers were involved in the investigation therefore under Section 17 of the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 I must inform you that we do not hold the information you have requested.

Question 7

As this is an historic case we cannot confirm the procedure for choosing operational names. Procedures have changed over the years and latterly there is no particular reason for picking names. Local divisions keep a register of available operational names. The first letter reflected the division it belonged to e.g. operations beginning with "a" belonged to A Division (former City of Edinburgh division). These names are taken from the dictionary and allocated to each operation on an alphabetical basis.

Question 8

Information relating to offences is kept in line with our Records Retention schedule. Files exist in electronic and paper format.

Question 9

Police Scotland does not hold information relating to Executive Summaries or Reports therefore under Section 17 of the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 I must inform you that we do not hold the information you have requested.

Question 10

Police Scotland was established by Section 6 of the Police & Fire Reform (Scotland) Act 2012 which states "There is to be a constabulary to be known as the Police Service of Scotland".
