3. Progress from Delivery Group

7th October Call in:

Only two 'yos' clients attended the call in on the 7th of October and in the afternoon five Probation / CRC. The speakers were very good, and have expressed their desire to be involved in future offers of help to young people.

On the following day one of the [REDACTED] stabbed another young person in [REDACTED]. This was seen as a trigger incident and the Delivery Group met to decide the collective enforcement response. The client involved in the incident was a member of [REDACTED]

Collective enforcement action was targeted on [REDACTED] There was a geographical high visible presence in [REDACTED] over two weeks. This included weapon sweeps and stop and search where appropriate. This resulted in 11 arrests for non-payment of fines, 69 stop and search.

It was noted that prior to the trigger incident, there had been a significant amount of policing activity [REDACTED] including address searches. This meant that for the purposes of collective enforcement, there was no intelligence or information to action, and the collective enforcement was limited to non-payment of fines and street high visibility policing. This challenges the value of this element of the model.

4. Visit of David Kennedy, 1 December.

DK is visiting London as part of his consultancy role to enable the pilot boroughs to improve understanding and implementation of his GVI model. He specifically wants to meet the Delivery Group. The Board discussed the visit and were invited to consider what they wanted from his visit. The Board are keen for him to leave Lambeth with a positive impression, particularly with regard to the level of work and effort applied across the partnership to implement and deliver the model. It was agreed that he should be told how shield has been implemented, what has gone well, and what hasn't. There should be a discussion about the model's application in a Lambeth (UK). We need to question him about this difference, and ask advice about how to deliver in these circumstances. This could help inform a Lambeth 'post shield plan' for 2016/17 and beyond. SF proposed that we use a community setting for the meeting. [REDACTED]

Actions:

- [REDACTED] to set up meeting with [REDACTED] to plan DK's trip
- [REDACTED] to facilitate the meeting

5. Exit Strategy

This was discussed. It was agreed that a plan will be developed to take forward the learning from Shield, the experiences of Lambeth's previous approach to tackling gang violence, and make proposals for delivery in 2016/17 and beyond.

Actions

- Delivery Group to develop a forward plan and make proposals to the Board.

6. Issues for Escalation:

- a) Collective enforcement
- b) To begin the discussion about future delivery 'post shield'.

Meeting closed at 16.50
