

Date	Location	Duration of trip	Reason for trip	Councillors	Officers	Costs to council		Costs paid by others
						Transport costs	Accommodation
September 2016	Oldenburg, Germany	3 Days	To learn about best practise regarding regeneration and cycling infrastructure	Portfolio Holder for Growth: Cllr Cunningham and Chair of Licensing Committee: Cllr Doyle	Chief Executive: Charlie Adan and Head of Regeneration & Planning	£1,788.84		Accommodation and meals paid by Oldenburg City
October 2016	Jinju and Seoul, South Korea	5 Days and 3 Days	To forge economic, cultural and educational links between Kingston and Jinju. To secure university exchanges between Jinju, Seoul-based university and Kingston To raise the profile of Kingston as a Foreign Direct Investment location of choice for South Korean investment To brief the inward investment and trade team at the British Embassy in Seoul on Kingston's USP and for regeneration and investment in Kingston.	The Leader of the Council: Cllr Davis and Mayor: Cllr Geoff Austin	Lead Officer Foreign Investment & International Partnerships and Economic Development Officer	4160.95 (transport to South Korea)	£400 (Seoul)	Accommodation and transfers to Jinju covered by Jinju City
March 2017	Cannes, France	4 Days	MIPIM - Investment in Kingston. To secure interest from international developers, investors and property professionals to help us understand how best to take forward our key sites in the Borough To showcase Kingston on an international stage To be part of the London stand sending out messages of openness and opportunity that exists in our Borough and the wider London context To learn and improve on marketing and branding of the Borough for regeneration and inward investment purposes	Councillors did not attend	Chief Executive: Charlie Adan, Deputy Chief Executive: Roy Thompson, Head of Strategic Planning and Economic Growth Lead			Kingston Futures Partnership covered costs £1, 834 and £6,814

March 2018	Cannes, France	4 Days	MIPIM - Investment in Kingston. To secure interest from international developers, investors and property professionals to help us understand how best to take forward our key sites in the Borough To showcase Kingston on an international stage To be part of the London stand sending out messages of openness and opportunity that exists in our Borough and the wider London context To learn and improve on marketing and branding of the Borough for regeneration and inward investment purposes	Councillors did not attend	Deputy Chief Executive: Roy Thompson, Interim Director of Growth: Lindsay Barker, Group Manager Strategic Planning and Group Manager Regeneration & Internationalism		Kingston Futures Partnership covered costs £2622 and £3,760
May 2018	Oldenburg, Germany	3 Days	Regeneration and investment	Councillors did not attend	Deputy Chief Executive: Roy Thompson and Lead Officer Foreign Investment & International Partnerships	£102.08 (transfers) Gifts - Kingston-related books for the international section of their main library £41.47	Flights, accommodation and meals covered by Oldenburg City