Dear Mr Willmoth,

Freedom of Information request – RFI20191599

Thank you for your request to the BBC of 04/10/2019 seeking the following information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ('the Act'):

The BBC made a documentary about Tommy Robinson under the working title "Tommy Takedown".

How much did this documentary cost?

When did the work on this project begin and end?

Why has it never been broadcast?

Do the BBC intend to broadcast it?

Under section 14(2) of the Act, we are not required to respond to repeat requests. The Information Commissioner's guidance with respect to repeat requests states that where a public authority has previously complied with a request for information, it is not obliged to comply with a subsequent identical or substantially similar request from that person.

Appeal Rights

If you are not satisfied that we have complied with the Act in responding to your request, you have the right to an internal review by a BBC senior manager or legal adviser. Please contact us at the address above, explaining what you would like us to review and including your reference number. A request for an internal review must be made within 40 working days of receiving the BBC's response to your original request.

If you are not satisfied with the internal review, you can appeal to the Information Commissioner. The contact details are: Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF, Tel: 0303 123 1113 or see <https://ico.org.uk/>.

Yours sincerely
