

Permits

Permits are offered to meet the needs of various groups within the authority including residents, business and to a lesser degree carers and doctors. The charts below show that three quarters of these permits are residents' permits.

