Dear Steele Haughton,

Freedom of Information Request – FOI2023/00686

We are writing in response to your email received by Post Office Limited (“Post Office”) on 5 December, which has been dealt with under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (“FOIA”).

In your email you have requested the information shown verbatim in bold below:

“In evidence to the Post Office Horizon Inquiry Mr Jarnail Singh, former POL senior criminal lawyer, said he had permission from Post Office Ltd to undertake private legal practice while employed as a full time employee of Post Office Ltd.

Please provide details of the permission granted to Mr Singh and in particular arrangements to avoid and/or resolve potential conflicts of interest between Post Office Ltd and Mr Singh's private practice clients and arrangements for isolation of costs and disbursements to ensure Post Office Ltd did not pay any of Mr Singh's private practice costs.”

After a reasonable and proportionate search, we can confirm that Post Office does not hold the information you have requested relating to Jarnail Singh and, therefore, we are unable to determine what arrangements were in place with Mr Singh.

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of this response, you do have a right to request an internal review. You can do this by writing to the address above within 40 working days of receipt of this response stating your reasons for your internal review request or alternatively, by emailing information.rights@postoffice.co.uk.

If, having requested an internal review by Post Office, you are still not satisfied with our response you also have a right of appeal to the Information Commissioner at:

Information Commissioner's Office
