Dear Mr Williams

Freedom of Information Act 2000

Thank you for your recent request to the Council. You asked to be provided with the following information:

I would like the names of all persons, first and surname, whose date of marriage was on 01/07/1995 and 02/08/1995 occurring in this borough.

Response

I can confirm that Royal Borough Kensington and Chelsea holds the information you requested. However, Registration officers and anyone who acts on their behalf in carrying out statutory registration duties are outside the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act 2000. Superintendent registrars and registrars are not a public authority as defined in the Act and, therefore, are not subject to its provisions. Data held by them - including information held in marriage registers - is thus not subject to disclosure under the FOI Act.

If, however, you are looking for the date of marriage of a specific couple who married in Kensington and Chelsea, then the legal gateway to access this information is to apply for their marriage certificate which can be done online at Certificate order form (sishost.co.uk). When submitting an application, you'll need to state the couple's full names and also make it clear that you only wish to access the marriage certificate if it matches one of the two dates you've listed.

Please quote the reference number 4780305 in any future communications.

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of your request, you have the right to ask for an internal review. Internal review requests should be submitted within two months of the date of receipt of the response to your original letter and should be addressed to:
