Dear Arthur Burgess,

Re: Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 – Request for Information

Thank you for your email which was received by the University on 19 April 2021 timed 01:06 hours, requesting the following:

I would like to make a request under the Freedom of Information Act, for the PGT EXCELLENCE SCHOLARSHIP , could you tell me for the years 2016/17, 2017/18, 2018/19, 2019/20 how many applications there were and how many of those were successful in receiving a award?

University's Response

For the PGT EXCELLENCE SCHOLARSHIP, could you tell me for the years 2016/17, 2017/18, 2018/19, 2019/20 how many applications there were and how many of those were successful in receiving a award?

Applicants holding offers will be automatically assessed for the scholarship based on academic merit. Applicants who are considered for the scholarship will be notified within six weeks of receiving an offer. There is no separate application form required. Further information can be found here:

Your right to seek a review

Should you be dissatisfied with the way in which the University has dealt with your request, you have the right to require us to review our actions and decisions. If you wish to request a review, please contact the Data Protection and Freedom of Information Office at foi@gla.ac.uk within 40 working days. Your request must be in a recordable format (letter, email, audio tape, etc). As the University of Glasgow is a Scottish Public Authority, your request is subject to the terms of the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 ("FOISA"). You will receive a full response to your request for review within 20 working days of its receipt.

If you are dissatisfied with the way in which we have handled your request for review you may ask the Scottish Information Commissioner to review our decision. You must submit your complaint to the Commissioner within 6 months of receiving the response to review letter. The Commissioner's Office may be contacted as follows:

Online Appeal Service:
