Thank you for your request of 26 June 2010 for a review of the handling of your FOI request. I have conducted a review of this request on behalf of the Cabinet Office. You asked us for an explanation of the timing of the Cabinet Office response.

I have looked at this case again, and due to an administrative error, the deadline date was calculated incorrectly and for this I apologise. You received a response on 28 June, and you should have received a response on 25 June. I am sorry for any inconvenience caused.

With regards to your request for photographs, our response to your request provided you with the information that we hold and referred you to photographs which are available on Flickr. No further information falling within the scope of your request is held.

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:
