Dear Mr James

Freedom of Information Request Reference N^o: FOI 000086/17

I write in connection with your request for information received by the Norfolk Constabulary in which you sought access to the following information:

Please provide or direct me to any document of law which would specifically define photography in public as "anti-social", as stated by your officers.

This is a request for facts and evidence of your procedures, which is of public interest and cannot be regarded as vexatious.

Response to your Request

Norfolk Constabulary does not hold information relevant to your request.

- There is no power in law to prevent a person from taking a photograph of anything or any person in a public place.

This response will be published on the Norfolk Constabulary's web-site under the Freedom of Information pages:-
