Dear Mr/Ms Wiseman

RESPONSE TO INFORMATION REQUEST

This request was answered under the Freedom of Information (FOI) Act 2000.

REQUEST

Dear Aylesbury Vale District Council,

Would it please be possible to be sent a mass export of the Planning Data from your planning portal for all the properties within the authority from the earliest date available to Nov. 2017.

We do not need any of the associated documents etc, just the Property Address, Date of Application, Application Number, Status and the Proposal (The data that usually appears after a search).

We are currently building a free service that incorporates a wide-range of property specific information for homeowners in one place. We have already integrated with Land Registry, Royal Mail, Ordnance Survey, VOA, ONS, Data.gov.uk, Historic England, etc.

This information would be very useful for our users,

Thank you in advance for your help with this matter,

P. Wiseman

Yours faithfully,

P. Wiseman

RESPONSE

Thank you for your information request to Aylesbury Vale District Council (AVDC).

Under Section 21 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000, data is exempt from disclosure if it is "information accessible to applicant by other means". The data you are requesting, namely Property Address, Date of Application, Application Number, Status and the Proposal can all be found on our Planning portal as you have stated. Under the FOI Act, there is no obligation on public bodies to create extra work by exporting data that is already in the public domain. If you were to create your own database using the Planning information, please see our Copyright notice below. Permission would need to be sought from AVDC before you published data owned by the Council.

Should you require further information, please contact records@aylesburyvaledc.gov.uk or write to the Senior Support Officer at the address given below.

If you feel that your request has not been properly handled or if you are dissatisfied with the outcome, you can request an internal review by e-mailing us at the above email address, or writing to us at:

Please note that you have the right to make a complaint direct to the Information Commissioner and details on how to do this are set out on the Information Commissioner's website www.informationcommissioner.gov.uk. The Information Commissioner, however, will normally expect a complainant to have exhausted a public authority's internal review procedures first.

Copyright

The copyright in the material contained in this document is owned by Aylesbury Vale District Council unless otherwise stated. The supply of documents under the Freedom of Information Act does not give the person or organisation who receives them an automatic right to re-use the documents in a way that would infringe copyright, for example, by making multiple copies, publishing and issuing copies to the public. Brief extracts of the material may be reproduced under the fair dealing provisions of the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 (sections 29 and 30) for the purposes of research for non-commercial purposes, private study, criticism, review and news. Authorisation to re-use copyright material not owned by Aylesbury Vale District Council should be sought from the copyright holders concerned. If in doubt, users should contact us in the first instance.

Data Protection

AVDC is a Data Controller under the Data Protection Act 1998. We hold information for the purposes specified in our notification to the Information Commissioner and may use this information for any of them. We may receive information about you from other organisations, or we may give information to them. If we do it will only be as the law permits, to check the accuracy of information, to prevent fraud or detect crime, or to protect public funds.
