Dear Mr. Manderson

Re: Freedom of Information Request

I am writing in response to your email of the 23rd February 2010. We have considered your request under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000. In your email you wrote:

"I would like to know if any consultation meetings (With the Catholic Church) have taken place to mark the visit of the Bishop of Rome to Great Britain in 2010.

And if any consultation meetings (with Reformed Churches) have been made relating to a stamp to mark the 450th anniversary of the Scottish Reformation."

Our Philatelic department has confirmed that no such consultation meetings relating to Royal Mail stamps have taken place. Consequently, Royal Mail Group does not hold any information relevant to your request.

I hope that this suitably answers your request. If for any reason you are not satisfied with this response, you do have the right to request a review. If you wish to do so please set out in writing your grounds of appeal and send to the Head of Information Compliance, Royal Mail Group, Company Secretary's Office, 100 Victoria Embankment, LONDON, EC4Y 0HQ. An internal panel will then review the decision, and you will be advised of the outcome

If, having requested an internal review by Royal Mail, you are still not satisfied with our response you also have a right of appeal to the Information Commissioner at:
