Dear Ms Thomas

Freedom of Information Act 2000

Thank you for your recent request to the Council. You asked to be provided with the following information:

Following the Grenfell Tower fire a protest, on the 16th June 2017, at RBKC town hall ended up with several protesters entering the town hall and, reportedly, causing damage and intimidating employees.

In terms of this incident can you please tell me:

How many people were arrested?

How many people were charged?

How many were convicted?

How many weapons were seized, and what they were?

How much it cost to fix any damage?

Various press outlets described the numbers as 'hordes' - do you have exact numbers on those involved?

Response

This request is being handled under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

I am writing to advise you that, following a search of our paper and electronic records, I have established that the information you requested is not held by Royal Borough Kensington and Chelsea.

We do not hold any of the information you require regarding the protest. The police might hold this information.

Please quote the reference number 1412397 in any future communications.
