Dear Rand Damodred,

Your request was received on 7 April 2023 and I am dealing with it under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ('the Act').

You asked:

Please could you provide the following information for each postgraduate course, taught or research, offered in the last 5 year (for each of the last five years individually):

- Title of the course
- Total number of applications to the course
- Total number of offers given out for the course
- Total number of acceptances for the course

The requested information is attached.

Please note that the attached document should not be copied, reproduced or used except in accordance with the law of copyright.

If you are unhappy with the service you have received in relation to your request and wish to make a complaint or request an internal review of this decision, you should contact us quoting the reference number above. The University would normally expect to receive your request for an internal review within 40 working days of the date of this letter and reserves the right not to review a decision where there has been undue delay in raising a complaint. If you are not content with the outcome of your review, you may apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Generally, the Information Commissioner cannot make a decision unless you have exhausted the complaints procedure provided by the University. The Information Commissioner may be contacted at: The Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF (<https://ico.org.uk/>).

Yours sincerely,

Zoe Allwood
