Dear Ms Foy

Thank you for your email of 21 March 2012 regarding the percentage of postgraduate students, on PGDE Primary and Secondary, who were selected from our undergraduate courses.

The figures attached show the data for entrants to PGDE programmes at the University of Edinburgh. It is only possible to show those entrants where the student has declared their previous institution as the University of Edinburgh, although this may include students whose previous qualification was a postgraduate qualification as well as those completing an undergraduate degree
