Table 1: Numbers of applicants to the University of Edinburgh, applicants receiving offers and entrants, on postgraduate degree programmes in 2014/15

Table notes

The data provided below shows:

Applications, not applicants. An applicant may make more than one application to the University in an admissions cycle

Applications submitted during the 2014/15 admissions cycle for immediate entry and for deferred entry from the previous year's cycle (2013/14), Deferred entry data includes - but is not limited to - those instances where the 'application' and 'offer' columns show a '0' value, but a higher value is shown in the 'entrant' column

The number of entrants refers to students who completed matriculation

Table 1: Numbers of applicants to the University of Edinburgh, applicants receiving offers and entrants, on postgraduate degree programmes in 2014/15

Table notes

The data provided below shows:

Applications, not applicants. An applicant may make more than one application to the University in an admissions cycle

Applications submitted during the 2014/15 admissions cycle for immediate entry and for deferred entry from the previous year's cycle (2013/14), Deferred entry data includes - but is not limited to - those instances where the 'application' and 'offer' columns show a '0' value, but a higher value is shown in the 'entrant' column

The data provided below shows:

Applications, not applicants. An applicant may make more than one application to the University in an admissions cycle

Applications submitted during the 2014/15 admissions cycle for immediate entry and for deferred entry from the previous year's cycle (2013/14), Deferred entry data includes - but is not limited to - those instances where the 'application' and 'offer' columns show a '0' value, but a higher value is shown in the 'entrant' column
