Dear Edward Williams

We refer to your request where you asked:

“Please disclose: -

- 1. All information prepared in 1991 or 1992 for Neil Kinnock to read by him in the event he became prime minister*
- 2. Copies of all information still held relating to preparations made for the possible election of a Labour government in 1991/2”*

I am writing to advise you that further to our letter of 22 July, where we released the information we found in relation to part 1 of your request, it has now been possible to complete work on part 2 of your request for information relating to preparations for a possible Labour Government, 1992. Please accept my apologies for the delay in responding to your request.

Please see attached the information found in the scope of part 2 your request.

If you are unhappy with the service you have received in relation to your request or wish to request an internal review, you should write to:

Rachel Anderson
Head of Freedom of Information
Cabinet Office
70 Whitehall

London
SW1A 2AS

email: foi-team@cabinetoffice.gov.uk

You should note that the Cabinet Office will not normally accept an application for internal review if it is received more than two months after the date that the reply was issued.

If you are not content with the outcome of your internal review, you may apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Generally, the Commissioner cannot make a decision unless you have exhausted the complaints procedure provided by the Cabinet Office. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:

The Information Commissioner's Office
Wycliffe House
Water Lane
Wilmslow
Cheshire
SK9 5AF

Yours sincerely
