NPCC Response:

The NPCC does hold information captured by parts of your request.

An inference has been made that you are seeking information from NPCC Central Office. The NPCC is hosted by the Metropolitan Police Service (MPS). If you were seeking information for portfolio leads, they work in addition to their day jobs, from the home force and information would be held by them.

The NPCC FOI legislation falls under statute. You will appreciate that this is an extremely complex and technical piece of legislation. Please be mindful when seeking information for tendering purposes. There are gateways to all public authorities for you to seek information under a 'business as usual' process, by contacting customer services or a main helpline in order to be put in touch with procurement.

Yours sincerely

COMPLAINT RIGHTS

Internal Review

If you are dissatisfied with the response you have been provided with, in compliance with the Freedom of Information legislation, you can lodge a complaint with NPCC to have the decision reviewed within 20 working days of the date of this response. The handling of your request will be looked at by someone independent of the original decision, and a fresh response provided.

It would be helpful, if requesting a review, for you to articulate in detail the reasons you are not satisfied with this reply.

If you would like to request a review, please write or send an email to NPCC Freedom of Information, c/o PO Box 481, Fareham, Hampshire, PO14 9FS.

If, after lodging a complaint with NPCC, you are still unhappy with the outcome, you may make an application to the Information Commissioner at the Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF.
