Cath

I have spoken to Connect2Kent and they are double checking, but when I went in via the link it just gives you the search box. I search for the job title and it doesn't seem to be on there anymore.

Regards, Geraldine

Hi Cath

The job appears to still be up on the website when you click on the link below - although yesterday it came up with a message saying it had expired and been withdrawn it now appears to be live?

Best wishes
Sue

Cath,

Please see below that Sarah spotted- bit confused by this but may be I have missed something while I was away- Is this supporting the process or what I thought we had agreed we were leading?

Many thanks

James

Saw this and was interested / concerned. Was not aware that we had reached this point yet? It is in the public domain so wanted to flag as may cause wider concern?
