Dear Maz Purcell,

Thank you for your Freedom of Information (Fol) request received on 21 June. You asked:

Further to your reply that you do not have any costs of advertising the change in State Pension Age if 1950s born women since 1995, Please supply all / any evidence that this was done.

DWP Response:

The Department for Work and Pensions now holds information contained in witness statements made in the recent High Court case of Delve & Glynn vs Secretary of State for Work and Pensions. We have provided the relevant extracts of these statements, together with the relevant extracts of the materials they reference, to answer your request.

If you have any queries about this letter, please contact me quoting the reference number above.

Yours sincerely,

DWP Central Fol Team
