Dear Ms Shah,

Request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ("the Act")

Further to your recent request for information held by King's College London, I am writing to confirm that the requested information is not held by the university.

Your request

We received your information request on 17 May 2018 and have treated it as a request for information made under section 1(1) of the Act.

You requested the following information:

I would like to know how many Psychology BSc C802 offer holders missed their offer last year (2017), and of those who missed their offer and were still accepted, what grades did they achieve?

Our response

For the 2017/18 cycle, we did not run a C802 programme therefore we are unable to provide the data for this, however we have provided information for C800 Psychology BSc as your request does refer to 'Psychology BSc':

The Number of Offer-Holders Who Missed Their Offer

112

Of those who applied with A Level grades only:

11 gained grades equivalent to AAA, for example A*A*B (therefore missing their offer, but still were accepted)

18 gained grades at AAB (therefore missing their offer by one grade, but still were accepted)

This completes the university's response to your information request.

Your right to complain

If you are unhappy with the service you have received in relation to your information request or feel that it has not been properly handled you have the right to complain or request a review of our decision by contacting the Assistant Director of Business Assurance (Information Compliance) within 60 days of the date of this letter.
