Dear Mr Whittaker,

Environmental Information Regulations 2004
Provision of Requested Information
ICO Case Reference: FER0701495

After reviewing the information supplied by the ICO in their letter dated 24th January 2018. We are now of the belief that their specific reference to the geographic coordinates of the Public Right of Way means we are no longer able to rely on our original exemption.

Therefore the East Riding of Yorkshire Council's Public Rights of Way data is now attached as requested. The spatial data is provided as a shapefile called working prow 07.02.18.shp. The attributes table contains the polyline, statement and status for each route.

I attach 8 files:-

working prow 09.01.2013.avl

The Ordnance Survey (OS) has granted a derived data exemption request in relation to the East Riding of Yorkshire's Public Rights of Way dataset therefore terms equivalent to the OS OpenData will apply to the data. Please see the OS OpenData link for further details:-

This data is freely reusable under the Open Government Licence:-

The Public Rights of Way dataset is based on a “frozen snap shot” copy of an Ordnance Survey 1:10,000 Raster background map, taken on 01.08.2002. The base map has not been updated. As a result the data is ONLY accurate when viewed against this version of the map and at that exact scale. When overlaid onto other background maps the data can only be regarded as a general indication of the alignment of a Public Right of Way.

Anyone requiring legal confirmation of the exact details of a specific right of way in the East Riding of Yorkshire should contact definitive.map@eastriding.gov.uk

The Public Rights of Way dataset is under continuous review with legal changes being incorporated as soon as possible once the legal process has been completed. The East Riding of Yorkshire Council's "Walking the Riding" website at <http://walkingtheriding.eastriding.gov.uk/> is updated using the dataset following such changes.

The data is released on the Open Government Licence. If it is reproduced it must be accompanied by the following text:

IMPORTANT DISCLAIMER

This webpage used data that is public sector information from The East Riding of Yorkshire Council. The data is licensed on terms equivalent to the Ordnance Survey OpenData licence. The date of the data is 07.02.2018.

An authority's Definitive Map and Statement is the authoritative source of information about the Public Rights of Way in that authority's area. The details of the Public Rights of Way network contained in the data supplied on this page are for information only, and are an interpretation of the Definitive Map and Statement, not the Definitive Map itself and should not be relied on for determining the position or alignment of any Public Right of Way. For legal purposes, the data does not replace its Definitive Map and Statement and changes may have been made to the Definitive Map and Statement that are not included in this data. The data contains Ordnance Survey Data © Crown copyright and database right 2018. Attempting to view this data at a scale greater than 1:10000 may produce an inaccurate rendering of the route of the Public Right of Way. In terms of re-use; this information is available for re-use but the East Riding of Yorkshire Council must be referenced as the source.

If you are dissatisfied with the above decision or how your request has been handled you can ask for the council to review this by contacting me within 6 weeks of this letter.

A senior manager will carry out the review and under Regulation 11 provide a response within 40 working days. It will provide a fair and thorough review of the decisions taken and where necessary how your request has been handled, including decisions taken as to where the public interest lies in respect of excepted information.

If you are not content with the outcome of the review you can apply to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Generally, the Commissioner cannot make a decision unless you have exhausted the Council's review procedure. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:
