Dear Mr Lister,

Thank you for your email of 19 November requesting the following information:

"I would like to request a, for the release under the FOI suitable, version of the document "Quick Wins for Busy Analysts".

I am treating your correspondence as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA). A search for the information has now been completed within the Ministry of Defence (MOD), and I can confirm that information in scope of your request is held. I attach a copy of 'Quick Wins for Busy Analysts' in entirety, which I hope meets your requirements.

Under Section 16 (Advice and Assistance) please note that information the MOD produces is Crown copyright. Supply of information under the FOIA does not give an individual or an organisation the automatic right to reuse the documents in a way which will infringe copyright. Further information on Crown copyright policy and licensing arrangements are published at:

<https://www.nationalarchives.gov.uk/information-management/re-using-public-sector-information/uk-government-licensing-framework/crown-copyright/>

If you are not satisfied with this response or you wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of your request, then you should contact us in the first instance at the address above. If informal resolution is not possible and you are still dissatisfied then you may apply for an independent internal review by contacting the Information Rights Compliance team, Ground Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail CIO-FOI-IR@mod.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review must be made within 40 working days of the date on which the attempt to reach informal resolution has come to an end.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not normally investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website, <http://www.ico.org.uk>.

Yours sincerely,

Defence Intelligence Secretariat
