22 June 2021

Dear Cdr Pantzopoulos,

Thank you for your e-mail of 22 May 2021 requesting the following information:

"I am interesting obtaining AP 9012 RAF"

I am treating your correspondence as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA)

This letter is to inform you that the Ministry of Defence (MOD) holds information relating to your request, but we believe that the information falls within the scope of the following qualified exemptions: Section 26 (Prejudice to Defence) and Section 38 (Health or safety of an individual). As such, it is necessary for us to decide whether in all the circumstances of the case, the public interest in maintaining the exemptions outweighs the public interest in disclosure.

The FOIA requires us to respond to requests promptly and in any case, no later than 20 working days after receiving your request. However, when a qualified exemption applies to the information and the public interest test has to be conducted, the Act allows the time for response to be longer than 20 working days. A full response must be provided within such time as is reasonable in all circumstances of the case and, in relation to your request, we estimate that it will take an additional 20 working days to take a final decision on where the balance of public interest lies. We therefore plan to let you have a response by 21 July 2021. If it appears that it will take longer than this to reach a conclusion, we will inform you.

If you have any queries regarding the content of this letter, please contact this office in the first instance.

If you are not satisfied with this response or wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of your request, then you should contact me in the first instance at the address above. If informal resolution is not possible and you are still dissatisfied then you may apply for an independent internal review by contacting the Information Rights Compliance team, Ground Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail CIO-FOI-IR@mod.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review must be made within 40 working days of the date on which the attempt to reach informal resolution has come to an end.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not normally investigate your case until the MOD internal process has been completed. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at: Information Commissioner's office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website at <https://ico.org.uk/>

Yours sincerely
