Request for Information Acknowledgment

Dear S L Kimberley

I am writing with regard to your information request of 2 August to the MOD for information regarding Royal Marines recruit injuries during training. It is being considered as a request for information in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act 2000 and the 1998 Data Protection Act.

This letter is to acknowledge receipt of your request and to inform you that generally, in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act 2000 a response is to be given within 20 working days of your application i.e. by 30th August 2011. However should your query turn out to be unusually complex, it may take us a little longer to complete the request, in which case we will contact you before the 30th August to let you know.

A copy of your question as received by this office is attached below.

Yours sincerely

Mike Demetriou

Request for Information

Dear Royal Marines,

I would like the statistics of recruit injuries, during training, resulting in a recruit being permanently or temporarily discharged, or back trooped, over the last 3 years.

Further, the statistics of recruits who complete their training in their original troop.

Yours faithfully,

S.L. Kimberley
