Dear Emma Stuart,

I refer to your Freedom of Information request received on 18 February 2020 about Recruitment Spend.

Details of any exemptions applied are below. Where any information is “not held”, this is explained below. Those parts of the University’s response (together with the details of how to ask the University to review the management of your request, or thereafter to seek a review by the Scottish Information Commissioner, should you wish to do so – please see below) constitutes the notice in writing that the information specified is not held by the University which is required under section 17 of the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 (“FOISA”).

Your enquiry and the University's response.

Dear Abertay University,

Please could you provide me with the total value of spend on staff recruitment agencies, which agencies were used, and how much was spent with each agency for the academic year 2018/2019.

The total amount spent on staff recruitment agencies for 2018/19 was £130,470

The agencies used were Adecco, Bruce Tait Associates, Pertemps and Search.

The amount spent on each agency for 2018/19 is in the table below:

Adecco	Bruce Tait Associates	Pertemps	Search
£108,555	£11486	£542	£9887

This concludes the University’s response.

Your right to seek a review of how your information request was managed

If you are not satisfied with our response or our reasoning set out above, you have 40 working days in which to require a review of our decision. Any such request should be put in writing and should be sent to the University Secretary, Abertay University, at the address provided below. The request should:

- (a) detail your request for a review of our decision to be undertaken
- (b) describe the nature of your original request
- (c) explain the reasons why you are dissatisfied with our response
