

Case Study Information for the Claimant

Name: Mrs Marie O'Reilly

Address: 11 Danby View, Ulit, West Yorks. LS21 2TJ

Date of Birth: 30/09/1979

Claimant Information

You are married with no dependent children. Your husband is in full time work. Your husband's date of birth is 02/07/78.

Work History

You have been unemployed for two weeks. This is your first attendance for a review. You have previously worked as library assistant. Your last job, which lasted two years, was as a production assistant on a daytime magazine show which was recently axed.

Job Goal

You would ideally like a job similar to your last, but are limited due to your remote location and the fact that you have no transport at the moment. You have decided that you should start looking in "The Stage" magazine as your husband may be made redundant shortly and is open to the idea of relocating.

Work Coach Intervention

You made your claim last week.

The Work Coach recommended you consider booking an appointment with a Careers Adviser.

She felt with a possible change in your circumstances due to your husband's job ending the Careers Adviser might suggest a different career path.

Last two weeks' Jobsearch Activities

You have looked in the "The Stage" magazine.

You have looked on the internet on the Gov.UK website.

You have asked a number of your contacts in the television industry if there were any vacancies.

You have contacted several employers directly to enquire about vacancies.

You have searched the Evening Post for vacancies but without success

You have contacted the Careers Service and have an appointment next week to see a Careers Adviser.

You have not checked free local paper as due to your remote location they are not delivered.
