Dear Jack Rose

I refer to your request where you asked:

"Dear Cabinet Office,

Boris Johnson said recently, regarding no self-isolation information given to travellers entering Britain, that 'now' was the time to do it. This came after months of public outcry, that travellers were being allowed in. Why was this?

Why were checks not done at the borders, months ago?"

I am writing to advise you that following a search of our paper and electronic records, I have established that the information you requested is not held by the Cabinet Office.

You may wish to try contacting the Home Office, at this link:

foirequests@homeoffice.gov.uk, who may be able to help you with your request.

If you have any queries about this letter, please contact the FOI Team quoting the reference number above.

If you are unhappy with the service you have received in relation to your request or wish to request an internal review, you should write to:

You should note that the Cabinet Office will not normally accept an application for internal review if it is received more than two months after the date that the reply was issued. If you are not content with the outcome of your internal review, you may apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Generally, the Commissioner cannot make a decision unless you have exhausted the complaints procedure provided by Cabinet Office. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:

Yours sincerely
