Dear DAVID SMITH

I refer to your request where you asked:

'Please provide a list of all security and justice investigation requests made to the Home Office in 2016 in relation or in connection to the European Union Referendum (held on 23 June 2016) that were rejected by the Home Office.'

Please note that having contacted the Home Office and Ministry of Justice for this information, they have indicated that the Cabinet Office is likely to hold this information.'

I am writing to advise you that following a search of our paper and electronic records, I have established that the information you requested is not held by the Cabinet Office.

If you are unhappy with the service you have received in relation to your request or wish to request an internal review, you should write to:

Sharon Carter
Cabinet Office
70 Whitehall
London

email: foi-team@cabinetoffice.gov.uk

You should note that the Cabinet Office will not normally accept an application for internal review if it is received more than two months after the date that the reply was issued.

If you are not content with the outcome of your internal review, you may apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Generally, the Commissioner cannot make a decision unless you have exhausted the complaints procedure provided by Cabinet Office. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:

The Information Commissioner's Office

Yours sincerely
