Dear Geoff Beacon,

Thank you for your email of 12th September where you requested the following information:

Please tell me when the "seventh document" was deleted.

In addition, please tell me, with personal information redacted, the title of this document.

Under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ('the Act'), you have the right to:

- know whether we hold the information you require
- be provided with that information (subject to any exemptions under the Act which may apply).

1. Please tell me when the "seventh document" was deleted. The seventh document was deleted in Spring of 2021.
2. In addition, please tell me, with personal information redacted, the title of this document. The title of the document was 'Letter to redacted from redacted'.

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of your request, you have the right to ask for an internal review. Internal review requests should be submitted within two months of the date of receipt of the response to your original request and should be addressed to the Information Rights & Records Unit. It would be helpful if you can tell us why you are dissatisfied with the response to your request so we may address this during the internal review.

Please remember to quote the reference number above in any future communications.

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Complaints can be made to the Information Commissioner via their website at: <https://ico.org.uk/make-a-complaint/official-information-concerns-report/official-information-concern/>.

Yours sincerely,
