Dear Mr. Orpen

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000 – REQUEST 1205

Thank you for your request for information, which we received on 30 January 2012. You asked us for a copy of any legal advice received by the Library in relation to copyright issues arising from the British Library Newspaper Archive, as well as a detailed description of the production process.

Your request will be considered and you will receive information to which you are entitled within the statutory timescale of 20 working days.

The Act contains a number of exemptions that permit us to restrict the disclosure of information. If any exemption does apply to your request, it is possible that some or all of the information will not be released. If this is the case, you will be informed, and told about your right of appeal. In any case we will always try to assist you as much as possible with your request.

If you have any queries or concerns, please contact me, using the request reference number.

Further information on the Freedom of Information Act 2000 is available from the Information Commissioner's Office:
