Dear Sir/Madam

Thank you for your request for an internal review received on 2 June 2014. I am sorry that you are dissatisfied with our attempts to handle your request under the under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

You have asked for information on the council's choice based lettings scheme to be provided to you with reference to 41 specific properties.

The council's original response to you advised you that the information you had requested was already accessible to you via the home connections website:

> Please log into > http://www.homeconnections.org.uk/Lambeth/CFELogin.jsp?selectedMenu=Login > and select 'View results of previous bids' and the appropriate timescale.

You asked for an internal review of the above response and informed the council that if the information was accessible we would have included a link to it.

The Council has now conducted a review and the original response is upheld. The information that you have requested is accessible to you via the above link. However, I am informed that some of the information you had asked for may not have been present on the website at the time you submitted your request.

If you remain dissatisfied with the outcome of the review you have a further right to appeal to the Information Commissioner, who regulates the implementation of the Freedom of Information Act. The Commissioner can be contacted at the following address:
