Dear Mr Al-Jamri,

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000 REQUEST – REF: 0807-13

Further to my reply of 26 September, I am pleased to tell you that the review of file FO 1016/469 has determined that all of it can be released. If you let us have a postal address we will be happy to send you a copy. Section 27 (international relations) was taken into account but on further consideration we have decided not to apply this exemption.

The copies of information being supplied to you continue to be protected by the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988. You are free to use it for your own purposes, including any non-commercial research you are doing and for the purposes of news reporting. Any other re-use, for example commercial publication, would require the permission of the copyright holder. Most documents supplied by the FCO will have been produced by government officials and will be protected by Crown Copyright. You can find details on the arrangements for re-using Crown Copyright on the Office of Public Sector Information website.

Information you receive which is not subject to Crown Copyright continues to be protected by the copyright of the person, or organisation, from which the information originated. You must ensure that you gain their permission before reproducing any third party (non-Crown Copyright) information.

The original file holding the released information will be sent to The National Archives (TNA) at Kew and be made available to the public. However, as the TNA release process may take up to 60 working days, I would advise you to contact TNA either by phone on 0208 876 3444, or via their website at www.nationalarchives.gov.uk to check that the file is there before making a special visit.

If you have any queries about this letter, please contact me, quoting the reference number above in any future communications.

If you wish to make a complaint or if you would like a review of our decision, please write to the FOI and DPA Team at Room K4.10-13, King Charles Street, London SW1A 2AH, or by e-mail to foi-dpa.imd@fco.gov.uk. You have 40 working days to do so from the date of this letter.

If you are not content with the outcome of the review and/or your complaint, you may then apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Generally, the Information Commissioner cannot make a decision unless you have exhausted the complaints procedure provided by the FCO. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at: Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire SK9 5AF.

Yours sincerely,

Mary Pring
Information Management Department

We keep and use information in line with the Data Protection Act 1998. We may release this personal information to other UK government departments and public authorities.
