Dear Mr Love,

Release of Information - Need for Additional Time to Reply

Further to our letter of 9 June 2020, I am writing to inform you that we are still not in a position to provide you with a substantive reply to your request for information in relation to the Operational Conversion Unit courses planned for the remainder of 2020

I am sorry that it is taking longer than originally hoped to conclude matters regarding your request and I can only ask for your understanding for the delay. I will contact you again once the decision has been made, or by 6 August 2020 if the process of consideration has not been completed.

If you are not satisfied with this response or you wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of your request, then you should contact me in the first instance. If informal resolution is not possible and you are still dissatisfied then you may apply for an independent internal review by contacting the Information Rights Compliance Team, Ground Floor, Zone D, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail CIO-FOI-IR@mod.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review must be made within 40 working days of the date on which the attempt to reach informal resolution has come to an end.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website, <http://www.ico.org.uk>.

Yours sincerely,

Navy Command Secretariat – FOI Section.
