Freedom of Information Request

Dear Mr Taylor

Thank you for your e-mail of 8 January 2016, in which you asked for the following information from the Ministry of Justice (MoJ):

Could you please let me know where and when those charged with the murder of Jeff Henry in Cambridge, following a reported attack (or attacks) on Sunday, June 7 2015, are scheduled to appear in court.

Your request has been passed to me because I have responsibility for answering requests relating to the Freedom of Information Act.

Your request is being handled under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA).

Under the Act, the department is required to provide you with a response within 20 working days. I will write to you in response to your request for information by 5 February 2016.

The Freedom of Information Act includes a number of exemptions to releasing information. Some of these are qualified exemptions which require us to consider whether it is in the public interest to disclose or withhold the information. In these circumstances we may need more time to consider your request, and if this is the case I will write to you by the date above to inform you of when you can expect to receive a response.

If you have any queries regarding this request please do not hesitate to contact me, quoting ref: FOI-102488 in all future correspondence.

Yours sincerely

South East Regional Support Unit
