Dear Mr Pearsall

Freedom of Information Act 2000

Thank you for your request for information that was received on 12 September 2016 concerning Please provide all risk assessments conducted and information relating to such for risks when children get on a school bus.

What policies are officially in place for transport of children to/from the school to the transport, and too/from the transport to home.

What arrangements have been made with schools for school transport provisions.

Please provide risk assessments which you have conducted which make you feel that it is suitable for a yr2 (six year old) to get onto a school bus by way of school transport provision.

We are dealing with your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 and we aim to send a response by 10 October 2016.

In some case, a fee may be payable. If we decide a fee is payable, we will send you a fee notice and we will require you to pay the fee before proceeding with your request.

The Freedom of Information Act 2000 may restrict the release of some or all of the information you have requested. We will carry out an assessment and if any exemptions apply to some or all of the information then we might not provide that information to you. We will inform you if this is the case and advise you of your rights to request an internal review and to complain to the Information Commissioner's Office.

We will also advise you if we cannot provide you with the information requested for any other reason together with the reason(s) why and details of how you may appeal (if appropriate).

Yours sincerely

Dot Beezley
Freedom of Information Officer
