BUCKINGHAM PALACE

12th February, 2018.

Dear Secretary of State,

Thank you for your letter of 8th February seeking The Queen's approval to rename the Second Severn Crossing, 'The Prince of Wales Bridge'. I note that your recommendation has the approval of the Prime Minister and the First Minister and that The Prince of Wales has been consulted and is content.

I have shown this letter to Her Majesty and can confirm that The Queen has given her approval to this proposal.

Yours sincerely,

Edward Young
Private Secretary to The Queen

The Rt. Hon. Alun Cairns, MP.
